a number of years ago now as one of my grandsons first birthday approached i thought about what to give a one year old there are a million things that will be played with for a short while then either broken or ignored i wanted to give something special something lasting something that even when older he might still enjoy then it struck me since he likes the silly little stories i tell him upon his request that maybe i could write some cute little short stories with a moral as well just for him and any of my other grandchildren as well when shared that's all it took to get me started since then each year i write a little story that somehow relates to something in his life when another grandchild came along he also was added to the list of recipients of original stories when i got to thinking about it i decided there may be other grandparents that would like to spend time with their grandchild reading a little story now a few years down the pike and i have enough for a book and so herein i offer my readers a chance to share the joy of time spent reading to a child that is why my stories were written in the first place children go through phases as with my grandchildren there were the dinosaurs whales especially the blue whale hedge hogs puppies and gold fish im sure you get my drift all of these fed my imagination and help to produce stories that have a connection and personal touch for both the child and me these stories are not written for children to read but rather for a loving adult to sit down with child on their lap or side by side on a shared sofa and be read to i recommend using funny voices and lots of emphasis and maybe a tickle or two at just the right moment to add flavor and a garnish to each story the giggles like sparklers on the 4th of july will shower joy in all directions and warm the heart of the one reading the story and those close by do not be concerned about the content all the stories contained in this book are rated pg to be read by parent or grandparent i hope you will enjoy these short stories even more than i did writing them join anoushka krishna meenu and raghu along with aija aiji on their adventure to mayawati a beautiful hilly region in uttarakhand little do they know their trip will be filled with unexpected magic as this time their dear aija becomes their new storyteller amidst snow capped mountains and towering deodar trees aija weaves tales of kings and princesses mermaids and bitter gourds imparting wisdom and compassion along the way as the children explore the mountains they make new friends learn about pahadi folk traditions marvel at breathtaking sunsets and travel to various destinations from the bestselling author of grandma s bag of stories and grandparents bag of stories sudha murty comes another collection of immersive captivating and sensorial tales with an exciting new twist cascade is just a little ant trying to figure out her way in the world when suddenly a calamity strikes and the whole ant population is afraid of the war to come without a queen everything is distraught can cascade rescue her kingdom along with her two best friends while her grandparents are always trying to find her a love match and her enemy continuously trying to sabotage her plans to overthrow cascade read to find out more a twisting thriller that spans from a forbidden mayan island to the opium fields of afghanistan biologist dr david knight is a lucky man he has been granted special permission to survey xulakan the forbidden island of the mayan people at the volcanic island s birth in the gulf of mexico it rose from the sea looking like a smoking pyramid almost as if it were a fiery holy temple mayan high priests immediately declared xulakan to be sacred ground so it was never inhabited or visited by the ancient people legend and fear have kept it strictly off limits for centuries when dr knight arrives he senses eyes watching him human eyes and he is about to discover a world of lethal secrets soon he begins to realize he might not live to tell the tale a novel of corruption and greed that detours through afghanistan and the opium trade and follows the adventures of a ruthless government intelligence agent known as the viper this is an edge of your seat thriller from the author of deadly cargo a former special forces soldier and wilderness survival expert since the one thing america had that the allies lacked was young men who could drive the first 3 000 troops sent to europe were ambulance drivers teddy was one of these and from july 1917 through the armistice of 1918 he and the other men of ssu 592 drove their rigs through the climactic battles of the great war most notably the second battle of the marne in 2004 it was widely reported in the british and zambian press that roy clarke columnist and satirist known as kalaki on the the post zambia s major independent daily faced deportation following a column entitled mfuwe the government had announced he was a threat to peace and good order clarke refused to succumb however or indeed apologise instead supported by his editor he continued to champion the freedom of the press in zambia freedom of expression in general and the cause of zambian journalism this book brings together a collection of clarke s writings published over a period of five years his writings are characterised by irony satire and caustic wit exposing folly vice and hypocrisy they are accompanied by the political cartoons of trevor ford popularly know as yuss fred m membe editor of the post provides the introduction to the book in which he comments nowadays we find ourselves stuck in a culture of zealous worship of leaders a culture that would look primitive in the eyes of our ancestors our modern african societies have established a reputation for intolerance that is difficult to match i see roy s work as attempting to confront this situation to help us return to our more tolerant zambian culture a culture of liberating life giving and enjoyable laughter my book is about a lucky baby boy everywhere he went he got lucky by finding something or just too lucky the boy name is frank he found an island that wasn t like any other island he found the island when he was snorkeling that was one of his passion in that island everything was strange the flowers and plants didn t look like flowers he saw before they look like if they were cross with others flowers he couldn t believe what he was seeing the first flower he saw was very tall it was at least like a light pole the stump was orange the leaves shaped like yellow triangle with raised green lines and the other leaves were white circles with raised red dots he was stunned didn t and what to do or if he should tell someone about it they even had animals that were cross mix with other everything had life he use to love it there it was like a dream in the year 2008 the girl i was with gave birth to a healthy baby boy name francisco m vega after about two years we didn t work years i was still there for him i still have another dream that was to open my own food truck and it s almost there all i need is my vendor licensed is around the corner for know i do is i had started an energy business all i do is help people save money get free energy and make money i never gave up my dream my brother francisco j vega use to always tell me to never give up my dreams that is always a way to reach your dream my thanks to him for believing in me and my fianc® rosa c baez thank you so much for believing in me and supporting my ideas love you always
